

Marieke Blom

30 juli 1974

*Summary: experienced economist with background in banking and politics;
Creates clarity in complexity*

2013 – present ING Chief Economist ING The Netherlands

Responsible for research team (macro, consumer, industry and thematic analysis). Internal strategic advisor, member of the ING Group Leadership Council. Represents ING's economic views externally.

2007-2013 De Argumentenfabriek Senior Manager

Responsible for building the company's client portfolio in the financial services industry. Project manager and facilitator of strategic decision-making processes.

2002-2007 PvdA (Dutch Labour party) Political advisor

Political advisor to members of parliament and to the local council in Amsterdam. Manager of 'opposition research' within the campaign team for the 2006 elections.

1999-2002 ABN AMRO Economist and analyst

Management trainee and economist responsible for country analysis of several European countries. Internal consultant for the corporate banking strategy process.

Education

1993 – 1999 Economics (Masters degree) UvA

International Monetary Economics, thesis written at the Dutch Central Bank's research department as a research report 'Theoretical and empirical research into uncovered interest parity (Dutch)

1992 – 1993 Psychology (propaedeutics) UvA

1986 – 1992 VWO

Languages: Dutch, English, Spanish and basic knowledge of French and German